

CONSOLIDATED MARK LIST

Revision 2003

Mark list will be issued each for regular, supplementary and improvement examinations separately. There is no provision to issue consolidated mark list of different supplementary attempts together. That is, there is no provision to issue a consolidated mark list entering the marks of last appearance of all subjects in a single mark list with the highest marks secured in each subject. Candidates need not approach this office with such a request. However total percentage of marks will be counted on the basis of the highest marks secured in each subject in different chances for those who are eligible for carry over of Second year marks. The total marks secured in the final year alone will not be counted for I class/Distinction when there is no carry over.
