

Year System

The students may apply for improvement of marks of Second Year subjects (both Theory & Practical). They should appear for improvement in the next Examination (i.e. in the second chance). The higher marks will be accounted for carry over of the Second year mark long with the final year. Separate application should be submitted for “improvement of passed subjects” and “supplementary appearance of failed subjects” of Second year. Improvement appearance will not be reckoned as an additional chance