

POSTPONEMENT OF EXAMINATION

As a rule the conduct of examination will not be stopped even if a Holiday is declared by the Govt. or Local authorities unless and until it is specified so. The exams can be stopped only on receipt of official communication from this office in such circumstances. Usually Examinations are not postponed for reasons like local Hartal/Bandh observed in certain areas or Districts of the State. Indian Standard time will be followed for all sessions of the exams